

Application – IPDS Kenya

SUNY Buffalo State School of Education

The School of Education at SUNY Buffalo State believes that education students engaged in global outreach and travel – whether locally, nationally, or internationally – are better prepared to become teachers who meet the needs of children in today’s classrooms. Students who study, teach, and observe abroad enhance their academic proficiency, develop confidence and leadership skills, build credentials noticed by future employers, and bring an inclusive approach to their teaching.

Program Overview

IPDS Kenya is an International Professional Development Schools program offered in the spring semester with travel in May/June. It includes enrollment in a 3-credit course and 2.5 weeks near Nairobi, Kenya. Selected participants must submit a non-refundable application fee, deposit, and all final payments by the deadlines specified. Participants must obtain a passport valid for at least 3 months after travel return date, complete required paperwork and processes, purchase travel insurance through Buffalo State, participate in the pre-travel course, and adhere to all health and travel regulations.
