

PDS Consortium Meeting

March 8 from 7:45-10:00

Sponsored by A.J. Schmidt Elementary of the Lake Shore (Evans-Brant) Central School District
9455 Old Lake Shore Road, Angola, NY 14006

Your hosts:

- Mrs. Jill Clark, Principal
- Melissa Bergler, Asst. Supt. of Instruction
- Chris Shively, Assistant Professor

Featuring National Speaker & Recording Artist Darryl Tonemah, Ph.D.

Dr. Darryl Tonemah is an American Indian health psychologist and musician of Kiowa, Comanche and Tuscarora heritage.

He is a National Recording Artist who has:

- performed at the the 2002 Winter Olympics, the Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts, The Smithsonian Institute's Museum of the American Indian, The Native American Music Awards Show, and The New Orleans Jazz Festival

Dr. Darryl Tonemah

Agenda:

7:45-8:00 Refreshments, Networking, Drawings

8:00-8:30 PDS Business Meeting

8:30-9:45 Sharing Best Practices:

- Mrs. Clark will talk about supporting trauma in a semi-rural school
- Dr. Shively will talk about supporting STEM using culturally responsive pedagogy
- Dr. Tonemah will talk about supporting Native American students experiencing trauma

9:45-10:00 Small Group Discussion

Parking: Park next to the Lake Erie Beach Fire Hall (signs will be posted - lot is next to the school) - Buffalo State students will escort PDS members to the A.J.S. Gymnasium

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT SCHOOLS CONSORTIUM

SUNY Buffalo State <http://pds.buffalostate.edu/>

For more information, contact Pixita del Prado Hill at delprapm@buffalostate.edu

